Positive Solutions for Families: Train the Facilitator, Part One

Positive Solutions for Families provides an evidence-based, user-friendly workshop series of seven sessions to help professionals working with parents and family caregivers to promote positive and effective parenting behaviors for children ages 2-5 years. This two-part training will prepare early childhood professionals to effectively deliver the workshop series to families. Materials provided include a Family Handbook, Family Materials, Facilitator’s Guide, and Presentation Materials. This Train-the Facilitator Series consists of two training sessions and provides an overview of the materials, review of session content and activities, and helpful facilitation tips and strategies for running a family group series.

Tell Me How You Feel- Helping Infants and Toddlers Understand, Recognize, and Cope with Emotions

In this training session, participants will explore what the development of emotional literacy looks like for infants and toddlers (i.e., labeling feelings in self and others, recognizing facial and physiological signs, regulating responses, developing coping strategies). A variety of strategies will be shared that teachers can use to support and teach the young early learners in our care about feelings.
